1. In Matthew 1:18-25, Joseph demonstrates trust and obedience to God's plan despite the unconventional circumstances. Reflect on a time in your life when you were called to trust and obey even when faced with uncertainty. How did your faith guide your decisions, and what was the outcome? How can the fear of the Lord, as mentioned in Malachi 3:16, influence your trust and obedience in daily life?
2. Joseph's life took an unexpected turn when the angel appeared to him. Reflect on moments in your life when unexpected events or divine interruptions altered your plans. How did you respond? Did your response align with trust in God's sovereignty? Consider Malachi 3:16 and how your fear of the Lord impacts your ability to navigate and respond to unexpected circumstances in a way that honors Him.
3. In Matthew 4, Jesus clearly called his disciples to drop everything and following him. What needs to change in your life so you are able to follow Christ more effectively?
