Ministry Expectations:As a staff member of Central Christian Church, I commit to the following:

1. Care for my own soul – spiritually, physically, emotionally, and intellectually
2. Care for my own family – spiritually and emotionally
3. Exemplify a godly life in public and private.
4. Handle conflict Biblically
5. To repent quickly of any revealed sin
6. Be above reproach in all relationships, protecting against appearance of inappropriate behavior with the opposite sex.
7. Strive to be a humble, servant leader worth following.

8. Be loyal to vision and leadership – speaking positively and fiercely protect both peers and eldership but not overlooking or ignoring wrongdoing. (In no way is this intended to contradict accountability. In any circumstance of wrongdoing or inappropriate behavior of any kind, you are to follow the appropriate communication lines as laid out by the form chart and policy manual).
9. To put the best interest of the Church always before mine or my personal ministry
10. Be a multiplier of disciples and leaders – Equipping the saints, who will replace you?
11. Make every effort to establish a “team environment” bringing others into conversations and inviting open dialog.
12. To strive to shepherd people with gentleness and love through change, good times, and difficult times
13. Faithfully and compassionately care for people.
14. Be a learner with a teachable spirit – actively pressing yourself to learn new things.
15. To give my best effort and strive for excellence.
16. To be a servant of the Church in the workplace willing to step in when and where necessary.
17. To acknowledge communication quickly, even if the answer is not known, with an estimate of when you can respond more fully.

Working Conditions:

The ability to work in adverse weather conditions which could include, but not limited to hot, cold, dry, moist, and slippery environments. Other environmental factors could be surface noise, lighting, vibrations, and smell.
